

Webinar on

The new EU battery regulation proposal four months on:

What are the main implications for Norway?

This short Battery Norway and BATMAN webinar takes stock of the EU battery regulation that was issued in December 2020 and asks which features of the regulation are emerging as particularly challenging or promising. It also provides information on the future trajectory of the proposal and highlights current policy debates in Brussels related to the regulation.

Register to attend the webinar >

Thursday 29 April 12:00-13:00 hrs

Welcome

Lars Petter Maltby, Eyde Cluster

Conversation with Batteriretur

Fredrik Andresen, Batteriretur and Stina Torjesen, UiA: The devil is in the details?
Fredrik Andresen shares Batteriretur's perspectives on opportunities and challenges associated with the regulation

How might the EU regulation impact Corvus, Elkem and Hydro?

Short and preliminary reactions from, Nils Valland Corvus Energy Norway, Elise Must, Hydro and Gunstein Skomedal, Elkem

What features of the new regulation do the Norwegian Environment Agency see as particularly significant?

Preliminary reactions from Ole Thomas Thommesen, Norwegian Environment Agency

Open discussion: opportunities and challenges for Norway in the short and long term

Questions and comments welcome

Wrap up:

What have been key messages today and how do they resonate with current policy debates in Brussels? Terese Birkeland, UiA

Updates on Batman activities ahead and good bye,

Stephen Sayfritz, Eyde Cluster